

Dear friend of the Dutchess County Interfaith Council,

Our hearts remain warmed by your past support of DCIC, and if ever there was a year to keep the spirit UP, this is the one! Let us sing, remember and rejoice together, and a wonderful channel offered today is to be an official BUILDER of the 2020 Fest.

The 45th Annual Thanksgiving Interfaith Music Festival, “Still We Give Thanks,” will be a celebration of gratitude as no other in our history.

The online production will be held Sunday, November 22 at 2 pm, with Freedom Plains United Presbyterian Church serving as staging and production host. The program will include an inspirational array of presentation and performance across the spectrum of faith traditions, closing in united, harmonic voices of Let There Be Peace on Earth.

As a BUILDER you will be provided the link (live-streamed on YouTube) with profound and proper recognition:

- Listing in Music Festival program
- Posting on DCIC website
- Acknowledgment in outreach material, including newsletters
- THANK YOU Shout Out during the November 22 event!

BUILDERS do just this - they help construct the foundation of DCIC operations and services year round. Your generosity provides critical resources for the mission to coalesce the interfaith spirit and administer unified duties across the county, and in the period of the pandemic this includes addressing such serious conditions as social alienation and food scarcity.

Together, we will celebrate Thanksgiving as one voice, and welcome you to be a BUILDER today - for despite our shared challenges, Still We Give Thanks!

Fondly and gratefully,

The DCIC Music Festival Committee
